

"Pray that the Lord your God will tell us where we should go and what we should do." Jer 42:3

Carman Mennonite Church is a congregation striving to be a Christian community of healing & hope. We invite applications for a full-time Lead Pastor position.

We are a mostly senior congregation of 60 - 70 active members as well as some younger families with regular adult and children's Bible study. We have been located in the picturesque town of Carman, Manitoba for 75 years. An agricultural town of 3000, providing schools, churches, hospital, senior care home and four-season recreational facilities. We are within a 45 minute commute to Winnipeg as well as a 30 minute drive to Winkler or Morden. To learn more about Carman Mennonite Church, refer to our website, carmanmennonite.ca.

As an independent Anabaptist church, we are looking for someone who models a sincere Christian faith, exhibits strong relational skills and community mindedness.

Duties would include preaching, teaching, pastoral care, visitation with those in care homes, connecting with the Carman and District Ministerial, working with the worship committee to provide meaningful experiences of worship which enable people to connect with God and nurture disciples of Jesus the Christ. This would be done with the help and support of the lay leadership.

Our ideal start time would be "as soon as possible". Compensation will be determined by experience and education. Forward inquiries and/or resumes together with the names and contact info of two references to: cmcpastoralsearchcommittee@gmail.com
